THE BIBLE

'And to the two men who had spied out the land Yehoshua said, "Go into the house of the woman, the prostitute, and from there bring out the woman and all that she has, as you swore to her." And the young men, the spies, went in and brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brothers, and all that she had. So they brought out all her relatives and set them outside the camp of Yisra'ël.

And they burned the city and all that was in it with fire. Only the silver and gold, and the vessels of bronze and of iron, they put into the treasury of the House of יהוה. However, Yehoshua kept alive Rahab the prostitute, and her father's household, and all that she had. And she dwelt in the midst of Yisra'ël to this day, because she hid the messengers whom Yehoshua sent to spy out Yericho. - Yehoshua (Joshua) 6:22-25 TS2009

ELISHA ABETH

'And Miryam arose in those days and went into the hill country with haste, to a city of Yehuḡah, and entered into the house of Zeḡaryah and greeted Elishēḡa. And it came to be, when Elishēḡa heard the greeting of Miryam, that the baby leaped in her womb. And Elishēḡa was filled with the Set-apart Spirit, and called out with a loud voice and said, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb! "And who am I, that the mother of my Master should come to me?" "For look, when the sound of your greeting came to my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy." -Lugas (Luke) 1:39-44
